Members are requested to take note of this omission and write in Mrs. Bejney's name before voting.

Edd and Ollie Horseshoe Champs

Edd Huddleston and Ollie Stevenson deserve crowns even if they aren't wearing 'em.

Because Edd and Ollie are now the undisputed champion horseshoe pitching pair of this here city of Torrance.

Jerry Calder, chief of police, boasted that he and Paekle Paxton could trim any two horseshoe tossers in this here hamlet.

Edd and Ollie took exception to this here statement and a match was arranged. The losers were to pay for a luncheon. (They called it a lunch, but we say luncheon to make it seem more expensive.)

Edd and Ollie won hands down. And now the chief says he doesn't want any more ringers around headquarters.

Dolley Issues Call to People Of Torrance to Join in Great Columbia Steel Celebration

Harry H. Dolley, chairman of the committee in charge of the event, this week mailed to Torrance people an urgent appeal for everyone to march in the big parade and join in the celebration next Wednesday when the Columbia Steel Corporation's new sheet steel mill will be opened.

The letter follows: "Dear Fellow Townsman: 'It's time to celebrate and we're going to 'put it on' in grand style. 'At 11 a.m. on Wednesday, May 18th, a mammoth whistle will proclaim to the world that the big new two-million-dollar sheet mill of the Columbia Steel Corporation has begun operating. This will be the signal for a gigantic civic celebration to welcome Columbia's gift to Torrance.

"Elaborate preparations have been made for a monster street parade starting at the city hall at 9 o'clock and marching through the business district under flag-bedecked streets and amid welcoming banners to the Columbia plant to see the first bar of steel shoot through the new mill.

"The line of march will be as follows: Starting at the city hall, east on Cravens to Cabrillo, north on Cabrillo to Sartori, west on Sartori to El Prado, north on El Prado to Border, and thence to the Columbia plant. WE WANT EVERY CITIZEN OF TORRANCE IN THAT LINE OF MARCH. All the Columbia executives, as well as a host of San Francisco and Los Angeles bankers and industrial executives, will be in town for the opening ceremonies and we want to 'show 'em' how Torrance appreciates its industries.

"At the Columbia plant there will be a short program of welcome following the opening of the plant and then your Chamber of Commerce will serve a FREE BARBECUE TO ALL THE POLKS. The price of the FREE FEED will be to 'march in the parade.' The city will present the Columbia with a beautiful bronze plaque and the barbecue will offer us an opportunity to mingle with the new Columbia men and their families. We want to make them feel welcome and we need you to come and play the host or hostess.

"That night the celebration will be broadcast over KMIC and Torrance will get plenty of advertising if you will help.

"The Torrance Herald is planning a 'COLUMBIA SPECIAL' edition to be issued on Tuesday, May 17th, to exploit the celebration the following day and to advertise the
